

Interested in a career in legal information?

Join a vibrant, sharing community of legal information professionals and become a member of the Canadian Association of Law Libraries!

CALL is looking for a student to join the ranks of our members and to start a Special Interest Group (SIG) at the UBC iSchool. Joining CALL is a great opportunity to get involved in the legal information profession, and becoming your school's CALL SIG representative is a unique chance to distinguish yourself as a new information professional.

For more information contact: Katherine Melville, CALL Membership Development Committee Co-Chair: kmelville@farris.com

Why should you join?

Because we are a vibrant, sharing community

By joining, you gain access to a network of hundreds of people in academic, private law firm, courthouse, law society, solo and prison libraries

Because money talks

By joining, you get significant discounts on learning and professional development activities (webinars and conferences)

Because someone has seen it and done it before

By joining, you gain exclusive access to career development opportunities such as mentoring and leadership programs

Because you can make a difference

By joining, you can help shape the future of our profession through volunteer opportunities on committees and in special interest groups

Curious about a career in the legal information profession?

Try these resources

CALL/ACBD: <http://www.callcbd.ca/en/content/home>

Annette Demers, Legal Information Specialists: A Guide to Launching and Building Your Career (LexisNexis Canada, 2012)

CALL Student SIG Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/CallStudentInterestGroup>