

Lauréats
KILLAM
Laureates

LECTURE SERIES

BC Treaty-Making in the Twenty-First Century

A history of the treaty process between the BC governments and First Nations in the 21st Century by one of Canada's leading historians and 2014 Killam Prize Winner Jim Miller

Presented by Jim Miller
Canada Council
Killam Prize Winner
Humanities, 2014

Professor Jim Miller, Canada Research Chair in Native-Newcomer Relations at the University of Saskatchewan and Killam Laureate will present a lecture on the treaty-making process in BC in the past two decades.

Dr. Miller is Canada's foremost expert on this topic, and has published key articles and books in this area, including the book "Skyscrapers hide the heavens"

October 20th, 2014

4:00 PM

Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

IBLC 182

The event is hosted by the Office of the Vice President Research and International and the Faculty of Arts. The lecture will be introduced by Dr. Helen Burt, Associate Vice-President Research, UBC and there will be a short introduction to the Killam foundation from Killam Trustee John Montalbano.

Reception to follow and all are very welcome to the lecture and reception.

Canada Council for the Arts annually honors outstanding Canadian scholars and scientists who are actively engaged in research, in the fields of Health Sciences, Natural Sciences and Engineering, and Social Sciences and Humanities. Each year, five $100,000 prizes – created through a donation by Mrs. Dorothy J Killam in memory of her husband, Izaak Walton Killam – are awarded to scholars such as Dr. Jim Miller for outstanding career achievement. To learn more, visit <http://killamprogram.canadacouncil.ca/en>.

Canada Council
for the Arts

Conseil des arts
du Canada

a place of mind

